Re: FPPC Case No. 10/836; Thomas Cackette

Dear Mr. Cackette:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) has initiated an investigation into whether or not you might have violated the gift disclosure requirements imposed by the Political Reform Act (the Act).[1] More specifically, although Daimler reported on its lobbying report making a gift to you of a dinner at Spataro Restaurant valued at $116.56 on February 18, 2009, this gift is not reported on your 2009 Annual Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700). You must amend the Form 700 to reflect this gift and send the amendment to my attention at the address above by October 25, 2010.[2]

If you do not believe you violated the Act's disclosure requirements, then so notify us in writing postmarked by October 25, 2010. Include any documentation that supports your claim. We will review any information you submit and provide you with a written response. If you have questions, you may contact me at (916) 322-8241. Technical assistance with the Form 700 is available by calling (866) 275-3772.

Sincerely,

Adrianne Korchmaros
Political Reform Consultant
Enforcement Division
