Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 10/1008, Youngs Market Company

Dear Mr. Robbins:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),[1] found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is being sent as a result of an FPPC investigation against Youngs Market Company. The FPPC initiated its investigation after receiving a referral from the California Secretary of State. The referral alleged that Youngs Market Company violated the Act's lobbying reporting provisions.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that Youngs Market Company violated the Act by failing to timely file one of its required reports.

Section 86115 of the Act provides that lobbyist employers must file periodic reports. Section 82039.5 of the Act defines a lobbyist employer as an entity that either "[e]mploys one or more lobbyists for economic consideration, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses, for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action" or "[c]ontracts for the services of a lobbying firm for economic consideration, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expense, for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action." Section 86117(a) provides that these reports "shall be filed during the month following each calendar quarter." The above-mentioned reports are filed by submitting a completed Form 635 to the California Secretary of State.

Youngs Market Company violated the Act because it did not timely file one of its Form 635s. Specifically, the Form 635 covering April 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010 was due on July 31, 2010 and was filed on October 28, 2010.

Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.
