Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 10/1014, United Brands Company

Dear Ms. Black:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act")[1], found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is being sent as a result of an FPPC investigation against United Brands Company. The FPPC initiated its investigation after receiving a referral from the California Secretary of the State. The referral alleged that United Brands Company violated the Act's lobbying reporting provisions.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that United Brands Company violated the Act by failing to timely file a required report.

Section 86115 of the Act provides that lobbyist employers must file periodic reports. Section 82039.5 of the Act defines a lobbyist employer as an entity that either "[e]mploys one or more lobbyists for economic consideration, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses, for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action" or "[c]ontracts for the services of a lobbying firm for economic consideration, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expense, for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action." Section 86117(a) provides that these reports "shall be filed during the month following each calendar quarter."

The above-mentioned reports are filed by submitting a completed Form 635 to the California Secretary of State. United Brands Company failed to timely file a Form 635 for the April 1, 2010, through June 30, 2010, period.

We are closing this matter with a warning letter because United Brands Company does not have a history of violating the Act.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or

If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.
