Amend 2 Cal. Code Regs., Section 18702.3 to read:

(a) The reasonably foreseeable financial effect of a governmental decision on an official’s financial interest in a source of income is material if any of the following criteria are met:

(1) The source is a named party in, or the subject of, the decision including a claimant, applicant, respondent, or contracting party.

(2) The source is an individual and:

(A) The decision may affect the individual’s income, investments, or other assets or liabilities (other than an interest in a business entity or real property) by $1,000 or more; or

(B) The official knows or has reason to know that the individual has an interest in a business entity that will be financially affected under the materiality standards in Regulation 18702.1; or

(C) The official knows or has reason to know that the individual has an interest in real property and:

(i) The property is a named party in, or the subject of, the decision as defined in Regulations 18701(a) and 18702.2(a)(1) through (6); or

(ii) There is clear and convincing evidence the decision would have a substantial effect on the property.

(3) The source is a nonprofit or government entity and:

(A) The decision may result in an increase or decrease of the entity’s annual gross receipts, or the value of the entity’s assets or liabilities, in an amount equal to or more than:

(i) [(OPTION 1: High Threshold Amount) $1,000,000 or $2,500,000]; or
(ii) Five percent of the entity’s annual gross receipts [OPTION 2: Low Threshold] and the increase or decrease is equal to or more than $10,000].

(B) The decision may cause the entity to incur or avoid additional expenses or to reduce or eliminate expenses in an amount equal to or more than:

(i) [(OPTION 1: High Threshold Amount) $250,000 or $500,000]; or

(ii) One percent of the entity’s annual gross receipts [OPTION 2: Low Threshold] and the change in expenses is equal to or more than $2,500].

(C) The official knows or has reason to know that the entity has an interest in real property and:

(i) The property is a named party in, or the subject of, the decision under Regulations

18701(a) and 18702.2(a)(1) through (6); or

(ii) There is clear and convincing evidence the decision would have a substantial effect on the property.

(4) The source is a business entity that will be financially affected under the materiality standards in Regulation 18702.1.

(b) Nexus. Any reasonably foreseeable financial effect on a source of income to a public official or the official’s spouse is material if the decision will achieve, defeat, aid, or hinder a purpose or goal of the source and the official or the official’s spouse receives or is promised the income for achieving the purpose or goal.

(c) Exception: Income from Retail Sales of a Business Entity. For purposes of applying

Section 87103.5:
The retail customers of a business entity constitute a significant segment of the public generally if the business is open to the public, provides goods or services to customers that comprise a broad base of persons representative of the jurisdiction.

Income from an individual customer is not distinguishable from the amount of income received from other customers when the official is unable to recognize a significant monetary difference between the business provided by the individual customer and the general clientele of the business. An official is unable to recognize a significant monetary difference when:

(A) The business is of the type that sales to any one customer will not have a significant impact on the business's annual net sales; or

(B) The business has no records that distinguish customers by amount of sales, and the official has no other information that the customer provides significantly more income to the business than an average customer.
