

(Regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission, Title 2, Division 6, California Code of Regulations.)

§ 18535. Restrictions on Contributions Between State Candidates.

(a) Under Section 85305, a candidate for elective state office, as defined in Section 82024, and any committee controlled by that candidate may not make any contribution to any other candidate for elective state office in excess of the limits set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 85301, except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d). This amount is adjusted for inflation in January of every odd-numbered year, pursuant to Section 83124 and implementing regulations, and, for an election occurring during the period between January 1, 2019 through December 31, 2020, is $4,700 per person.

(b) Pursuant to Section 85315, the restrictions of Section 85305 do not apply to contributions made by a candidate for elective state office, or any committee controlled by that candidate, to a committee established by an elective state officer to oppose the qualification of a recall measure or to oppose the recall election for his or her elected state office.

(c) Pursuant to Section 85304(b), the restrictions of Section 85305 do not apply to contributions made by a candidate for elective state office, or any committee controlled by that candidate, to a committee established by an elective state officer to defray attorney's fees and other related legal costs incurred for the candidate's or officer's legal defense established under Section 85304(a).

(d) Pursuant to Section 85303(c), the restrictions of Section 85305 do not apply to contributions made by a candidate for elective state office, or any committee controlled by that candidate, to a ballot measure committee controlled by another state candidate.

(e) The contribution limit of Section 85305, as adjusted for inflation, applies to contributions made by officeholders or candidates for Governor, other statewide elective offices, the Legislature, and the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System, and their committee(s), to other candidates for elective state office, subject to the provisions of subdivision (e).

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d), the restrictions of Section 85305 on contributions made by one candidate for elective state office to another apply to the aggregate total of contributions made from the personal funds or assets of the candidate and contributions made by all committees controlled by that candidate, as defined in section 82016 and Regulation 18217.

(g) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d), the restrictions of Section 85305 on contributions made by one candidate for elective state office to another apply to all contributions made from, and all contributions made to, any committees controlled by a candidate for elective state office, including committees formed for a pre-2001 election.

(h) Pursuant to Section 83 of Proposition 34, the restrictions of Section 85305 are applicable to contributions made by legislative candidates and their controlled committees to any candidate for elective state office, on and after January 1, 2001, and are applicable to contributions made by candidates for statewide elective office, as defined in Section 82053, and their controlled committees, to any candidate for elective office, on and after November 6, 2002, except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d).
