§ 18944.2. Agency Raffles and Exchanges of Presents.

(a) Applicability. This regulation identifies when a payment made by a state or local government agency of an item awarded to an agency official in a raffle open to all employees of the agency, or the unit of the agency holding the raffle, or received in an exchange of presents among agency employees, will be treated as a gift to the official.

(b) Agency Raffles.

(1) When an agency holds an employee raffle and the item awarded in the raffle has been received by the agency from a source other than an agency employee and the agency did not purchase the item from its funds, the item is a gift from the source who provided the item to the agency to the official who wins the item, and the agency is the intermediary of the gift. The value of the gift is the fair market value less any consideration that the official paid to participate in the raffle. If the value of the gift is $50 or more, the agency and the official shall comply with Section 87210 or Section 87313 if applicable.

(2) When an agency holds an employee raffle and the item awarded in the raffle has been obtained with agency funds or is otherwise an asset of the agency and not donated to the agency by a non-agency source, the provisions of Regulation 18944.3 apply.

(3) When an agency holds an employee raffle and the item awarded in the raffle has been received by the agency from an agency employee who is not acting as an intermediary for another donor, the item is not a gift to the employee who wins the raffle.

(c) Exchanges of Presents Among Agency Employees. When an employee of an agency receives a present in an exchange of presents, where all participants in the exchange are agency... employees, any present received by the official in the exchange is not a gift so long as the present received is provided by another employee of the agency and is not substantially disproportionate in value from the item provided by the official.

    (d) This regulation does not apply to a ticket or pass of the type described in Regulation 18944.1, which shall be governed by that regulation, if the ticket or pass is provided from a source other than an agency employee.
