18 candidate, his or her agent, or any committee he or she controls, if the organization complies 19 with all of the factors set forth below:

20 (1) The candidate is not substantially involved in the day-to-day operations of the

1           (5) This subdivision (c) shall not be construed to prevent the organization from forming a 2 separate and independent political committee which is not controlled by any person described in 3 subdivision (b)(1)(A)-(C).

4           (d) The presumptions set forth in subdivisions (b) and (c) can be rebutted by clear and 5 convincing evidence that, notwithstanding compliance with all of the factors set forth in 6 subdivisions (b) and (c), the organization is controlled by a candidate and operated for political 7 purposes.

8           (e) A person who makes a donation to a nonprofit organization which is tax-exempt
