Advertisement Disclosures

This chapter describes the disclosures required on mailings and other advertisements made by ballot measure committees. A disclosure is the portion of a political message that identifies the committee that paid for and authorized the communication.

The basic disclosure for most communications is “Ad paid for by [committee name].” The disclosure ensures that the committee paying for the ad is identified. The Act does not regulate the truth or accuracy of political communications given that the First Amendment provides broad protection for political speech. Some advertisements must also include the words “Committee major funding from” followed by the names of the top contributors to the committee paying for the advertisement.

A. Top Three Contributors of $50,000 or More

“Top contributors” means the persons from whom the committee paying for an advertisement has received its three highest cumulative contributions of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more. If two or more contributors of identical amounts qualify as top contributors, the most recent contributor of that amount must be listed as the top contributor.

If an advertisement paid for by a committee supports or opposes a candidate, the determination of top contributors may not include any nonprofit organization exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any person who has prohibited in writing the use of his or her contributions to support or oppose candidates if the committee does not use such contributions to support or oppose candidates.

When a committee primarily formed to support or oppose a state ballot measure contributes funds to another committee primarily formed to support or oppose the same state ballot measure and the funds used for the contribution were earmarked to support or oppose that measure, the committee receiving the earmarked contribution shall disclose the contributor who earmarked their funds as the top contributor if the definition of top contributor is met. If the committee receiving the earmarked contribution contributes any portion of the contribution to another committee primarily formed to support or oppose the specifically identified state ballot measure, that committee must disclose the true source of the contribution to the new committee receiving the earmarked funds. The new committee must disclose the contributor on the new committee’s advertisements if the definition of top contributor is met.

Ex 7.1 – A ballot measure committee has received 15 contributions of $50,000 or more. The committee will buy 30 second ads on local television stations. The television ads must identify the committee name as it appears on its most recent Form 410 and the names of the top three contributors who donated $50,000 or more.

Ex 7.2 – An elected officeholder made a $10,000 contribution to a ballot measure committee that is not controlled by the officeholder. Must the officeholder’s name be identified in the committee’s advertisements?

No. The officeholder’s name would be required in advertisements if the officeholder was a top three contributor of $50,000 or more.

Ex 7.3 – A non-controlled ballot measure committee’s four highest contributors are a corporation ($150,000), an individual ($100,000), a state officeholder using personal funds ($85,000) and the same state officeholder’s controlled committee ($50,000).

The contributions from the state officeholder’s personal funds and controlled committee funds are cumulated, for a total of $135,000. Therefore, the ranking of the contributors are (1) the corporation, (2) the officeholder, and (3) the individual.

Disclosure Examples

The disclosure must include, unless otherwise noted: “Ad paid for by [committee’s name] and “Committee major funding from [names of top three contributors of $50,000 or more]” in descending order.

- “Ad paid for by Citizens in Support of Measure B, sponsored by the Taxpayers Alliance, Committee major funding from Pacific Productions and XYZ Partnership”
- “Ad paid for by Californians for Education Issues PAC, Committee major funding from Student Political Action Committee, ZZZ Trade Association and Teachers United Organization”
- “Ad paid for by Voters in Support of Measure A” (no sponsors or $50,000 contributors)
B. Summary of Advertisement Disclosures for Ballot Measure Committees

The disclosures that a ballot measure committee must put on its ads are summarized in the following chart and discussed below.

  o “Committee major funding from” may not appear in all capital letters

| Electronic media ads that are audio only                                      | • See disclosure requirements for radio ads above

*This text is not required if including it is impracticable. In such circumstances the ad need only include a hyperlink to a website containing the website disclosures.
Communication Disclosure and Manner of Display

| Paid Spokesperson: Payment of $5,000 or more to an individual for individual's appearance in a ballot measure ad | • In addition to other disclosures, include: “(spokesperson’s name) is being paid by this campaign or its contributors”

• Printed, televised or video ad: shown continuously in highly visible font except when the disclosure for television and video ads above is being shown

• Radio broadcast or phone message: spoken in clearly audible format

| Paid Spokesperson: Payment of any amount to an individual portraying a member of a licensed or certified occupation (e.g., nurse, firefighter, lawyer) | • In addition to the disclosure above, include: “Persons portraying members of an occupation in this advertisement are compensated spokespersons not necessarily employed in those occupations”

• Printed or televised ad: shown continuously in highly visible font

• Radio broadcast or phone message: spoken in clearly audible format

Exception: If the paid individual is actually a member of the occupation portrayed, the committee may omit this disclosure. The committee must maintain documentation of the individual’s license or certification.

C. Mass Mailings – Postal Mailings and Emails

Mass Mailings That Are Not Ads

Unless otherwise covered in the chart above, all mass mailings that are not considered ads of more than 200 similar pieces sent in a calendar month must contain:

• the words “Paid for by” immediately adjacent to and either above or in front of the committee’s name and address on the outside of the mailing and on at least one of the inserts

• in no less than 6-point type and in a color or print that contrasts with the background
If the sender is a single committee, the name and address need only be shown on the outside of each piece of mail.

Unless otherwise covered in the chart above, all mass emails that are not considered ads of more than 200 similar pieces sent in a calendar month must contain:

- the name of the committee sending the email preceded by the words “Paid for by” in at least the same size font as the majority of the text

Communications That Are Ads

For communications that are considered ads under the Act, please see charts above.

Recordkeeping for Mass Mailings (Including Emails)

For each mass mailing and electronic mailing, the committee must retain the following for four years:

- A sample of the mailing;
- The date of the mailing;
- The number of pieces sent; and
- The method of postage used for postal mailings.

Answering Your Mailing Questions

A. Must the committee’s identification number appear on a mailing?

No. The committee may include its committee ID #, but it is not legally required.

B. If an organization includes a copy of a committee’s flyer in its regularly published newsletter, is the committee required to be identified on the outside of the mailer?

No. The committee’s name and address must be identified on the flyer only.
C. A committee has more than one address. Which address must be used on mailings?

Any address that appears on the committee’s Statement of Organization (Form 410) on file with the Secretary of State may be used.

D. A committee pays for a ballot measure committee’s mailing as a nonmonetary contribution. Which committee must be identified on the outside, the committee paying for the mailing or the ballot measure committee?

Only the committee that pays for the mailing is required to be identified on the outside of the mailing.

D. Disclosures – Clear and Conspicuous

Disclosures on political ads and literature must be shown clearly so as to be understood by the intended public. Written disclosures must be printed clearly and legibly.

Spoken disclosures must be clearly audible and intelligible. Specific requirements for color contrast, print font size and time appearing on screen are listed in the disclosure chart above.

For political advertisements in languages other than English, disclosures should be written or spoken in the same language used in the advertisement.

E. Updating a Disclosure

When a committee’s name changes, when there are new top contributors or when the order of the top contributors change, advertisement disclosures must be revised. Television, radio, electronic media, or robocalls must be amended within five business days. Print media, mailings, or other tangible items must be amended every time an order to reproduce is placed.
F. Electronic Media Ads

Different disclosures are required depending on the type of electronic media ad. For example, the “Ad paid for by” and “Committee major funding from” disclosures are required on websites and certain social media ads. Other types of electronic media ads must include a hyperlink to a website that includes the “Ad paid for by” and “Committee major funding from” language. Please see the chart above for details or contact the FPPC for specific questions.

Space or Time-Limited Ads

For certain audio, video and television ads or small-size print ads, the Act permits the full disclosure to be shortened.

- Radio and prerecorded phone ads. Only the top two contributors of $50,000 or more must be disclosed. If the ad lasts 15 seconds or less or the disclosure statement would last more than eight seconds, only the top contributor must be disclosed.

- Television and video ads. The size for the smallest letters in the disclosure must be four percent of the height of the display screen and must be displayed at the beginning or end of the ad for at least five seconds of a broadcast of 30 seconds or less or for at least 10 seconds for a broadcast of longer than 30 seconds.

G. Exceptions

A disclosure is not required on regular-size campaign buttons (less than 10 inches in diameter), pins, bumper stickers (less than 60 square inches), or magnets. It is not required on pens, pencils, rulers, mugs, potholders, key tags, golf balls and similar small campaign promotional items where a disclosure cannot be conveniently printed.

The disclosure is not required on t-shirts, caps, hats, and other articles of clothing; skywriting and airplane banners; or committee checks and receipts.

Ex 7.4 – If a committee purchases radio time for ads 15 seconds or less in duration, the ads must identify the name of the committee and the highest single contributor of $50,000 or more.
Member Communications

A disclosure is not required on communications from an organization to its members, but a disclosure is required on communications from a political party committee to its members.

H. Ballot Measure Ad – Paid Spokesperson

When a ballot measure committee makes an expenditure of $5,000 or more to an individual for his or her appearance in an advertisement to support or oppose a ballot measure, the advertisement must include a statement that the individual is being paid for his or her appearance. For example, “Dr. Jane Miller is being paid by this campaign or its contributors.”

Also, when a ballot measure committee makes any payment to an individual in an advertisement portraying a member of a licensed occupation (e.g., nurse, doctor, firefighter, scientist, engineer, lawyer, etc.) who is not actually a member of that occupation, the advertisement must include a disclosure stating “Persons portraying members of an occupation in this advertisement are compensated spokespersons not necessarily employed in those occupations.”

If the individual is actually a member of the occupation portrayed, the committee may omit this disclosure and shall maintain documentation of the individual’s license or certification for the occupation. Upon request from the FPPC, documentation of an individual’s occupation must be provided by electronic means within 24 hours.

The statement must be in highly visible font, shown continuously if the advertisement consists of printed or televised material, or spoken in a clearly audible format if the advertisement is a radio broadcast or telephone message. In addition, the committee must file the Paid Spokesperson Report, Form 511. (See Chapter 11.)

Ex 7.5 – “Paid for by Yes on 88, Tobacco Tax Funds Research, Committee major funding from the CA Nurses Association and American Medical Association PAC. Dr. Jane Miller is being paid by this campaign or its contributors.”
I. Slate Mailer Disclosure Requirements

A slate mailer is a mass mailing that supports or opposes four or more candidates or ballot measures. A ballot measure committee may be subject to slate mailer disclosure and identification requirements if it:

- Is involved in the production of one or more slate mailers and exercises control over the selection of candidates and measures to be supported or opposed in the slate mailers; and

- Receives or is promised payments that total $500 or more in a calendar year for the production of one or more slate mailers.

For more information on slate mailer disclosures, consult the FPPC and Section 84305.5.

J. Penalties

The penalty for failing to comply with the Act’s disclosure requirements is a fine of up to $5,000 per violation. In addition, any person who violates the disclosure requirements concerning ballot measure and independent expenditure advertisements may be liable for a fine of up to three times the cost of the advertisement, including placement costs.
