- This filing schedule is prepared for the special primary election only. If a general election is held, a revised schedule will be prepared. Committees making payments in connection with other elections may trigger other reporting deadlines.
- Period Covered: The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed or January 1 if no previous statement has been filed.
- E-Filer: A state committee that has received contributions or made expenditures totaling $25,000 or more.
- Form 496: 24-hour independent expenditure reports must be filed through December 9 for the December 9 election.
- Form 497: Unlike the 24-hour independent expenditure reports (Form 496), the deadline for 24-hour contribution reports (Form 497) closes December 8 for the December 9 election.
- Forms 496/497: Payments for member communications are reportable within 24 hours if the member communication would otherwise be considered a contribution or independent expenditure and the payments are made during the 90-day election cycle. All reports are filed online only.
- Forms 450, 460 & 465: All state committees must file an original and one copy in paper format by personal delivery or first class mail unless otherwise noted. An E-Filer also files an online/electronic report. All political parties and central committees file with the Secretary of State.
- Filing Deadlines: Deadlines are extended when they fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday. This extension does not apply to any 24-hour independent expenditure reports (Form 496) or to 24-hour contribution reports (Form 497) that are due the weekend before the election. Such reports must be filed within 24 hours regardless of the day of the week. A $10 per day late fine may be assessed on both the paper and electronic report resulting in a $20/day fine.
- Contribution Limits: Contributions to state candidates and to committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Refer to the contribution limits chart on the FPPC website. Committees making "issue ads" featuring state candidates are also subject to contribution limits.
- Public Documents: All forms are public documents. Campaign manuals and instructional materials available at www.fppc.ca.gov, click on the Campaign link.
