Re: Your Request for Advice
Our File No. A-84-017

Dear Nancy:

This letter is sent to respond to your request for advice dated January 30, 1984, concerning the campaign disclosure provisions of the Political Reform Act and to confirm our telephone conversation of February 28, 1984.

You asked whether, in reporting expenditures made to a partnership operating under a fictitious business name statement, a committee may list the partnership as payee or whether it is required to also list as payees the individual partners. I advised you that only the name of the actual payee, i.e. the partnership in this example, is required.

If I can be of further assistance, please feel free to contact me at (916) 322-6444.

Sincerely,

Diane Maura Fishburn

Dear Carla:

I am requesting an opinion as to reporting requirements for campaign committees. Specifically when a campaign committee is reporting an expense or payment made to a Partnership operating under a fictitious business name statement, does the committee list the partnership name only, or is it required to list individual partners as well?

If a regulation exists as to this question, please send me a copy of it. If you need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

HYDE, MILLER and SAVAGE
