Re: Your Request for Assistance;
Our File No. I-87-072

Dear Ms. Knopf:

Your letter of February 18, 1987, was forwarded to this office by the Secretary of State. Your question involves the interpretation of Elections Code Section 12404. That provision is not part of the Political Reform Act. (Government Code Sections 81000-91015.) This agency does not interpret the Elections Code provision. However, as I advised your office by telephone on March 3, 1987, you may direct your inquiry to the Attorney General's Office for a response.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Robert E. Leidigh".

Dear Sir or Madam:

Bills have been presented to the Treasurer of Jim Wilson deceased's campaign funds for medical bills, hospital bills and expenses relating to funeral expenses.

Mr. Cheatham, Treasurer of Jim Wilson's campaign fund requests a ruling as to whether these are proper expenses to be paid under Section 12404 of the Election Code.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

Shirley F. Knopf
