Dear Bob,

This is a request for advice regarding interpretation of Government Code Section 84305.5. The request is made on behalf of two of my clients, each of whom expects to publish slate mail subject to that section. The clients are Barad & Levine, and Voter Guide 88.

In various circumstances, the requirement of paragraph (a)(1) that the name and address of the slate mailer organization be printed, and the requirement of paragraph (a)(2) that certain information including the name of the slate mailer organization be printed in a box, apply to the same page or surface of a slate mailing. The question I am presenting is whether, under such circumstances, the requirements may be satisfied by including the address with the name where the name appears inside the required box.

As always, I appreciate your cooperation.

Best wishes,
