Dear Jeanette,

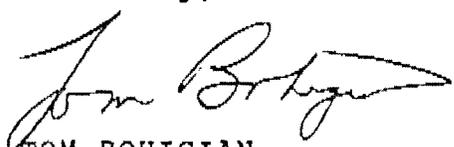

This letter is a follow-up to our conversation of last week regarding Proposition 73 and the effects it will have on municipal campaigns held this spring.

I want to confirm my understanding of our conversation relative to monies contributed from a controlled committee to my city council campaign. Specifically, can Good Government in the 80's (840218) contribute $2,500 to the Tom Bohigian For Fresno Committee (880129) for the purpose of electing me to the Fresno City Council? This contribution would be made before January 1, 1988, and would be spent anytime thereafter, including in 1989. The election will be held March 7, 1989.

My understanding from talking to you is that this would be permissible and that after January 1, 1989 I could still use the $2,500 for such purposes as the purchase of media time, yardsigns, printing, etc.

I would appreciate confirmation of this at your earliest convenience. If you could call me at work 209-445-5532 or home 209-224-6966, it would be helpful. I will check with you by the end of the week if I have not heard from you. In advance, I thank you.

Sincerely,

TOM BOHIGIAN
