Re: Warning Letter
FPPC No. 10/1107; Forescee Hogan-Rowles

Dear Ms. Hogan-Rowles:

The Fair Political Practices Commission ("FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act ("Act"),¹ found in Government Code Section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a non-filer referral from your filing officer that alleged you violated the Act's disclosure provisions regarding filing the Statement of Economic Interests, Form 700 ("SEI").

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you violated the Act's disclosure provisions when, as a designated employee of the California Economic Development Commission, you failed to timely file your Assuming Office and 2009 Annual SEIs.

§ 87300 of the Act requires every state and local agency to develop a Conflict-of-Interest Code. This code requires persons involved in the making, or participation in the making, of decisions which may foreseeably have a material financial effect on any financial interest belonging to that person to disclose reportable interests. Each newly designated employee shall file an Assuming Office SEI within 30 days after assuming office. Throughout the duration of holding that position, each designated employee shall file an Annual SEI at the time specified in the code. Lastly, every designated employee who leaves the position shall file a Leaving Office SEI within 30 days of leaving office.

¹ The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code sections 81000 through 91014. All statutory references are to the Government Code, unless otherwise indicated. The regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission are contained in sections 18110 through 18997 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations. All regulatory references are to Title 2, Division 6 of the California Code of Regulations, unless otherwise indicated.

Your actions violated the Act because you failed to timely file your statements by the deadlines. However, since you provided faxed copies of the statements and the fact that you do not have an enforcement history, we are closing your case with this warning letter. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on future conduct or newly discovered information. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future may result in an enforcement action against you, including monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

Although the FPPC is not seeking a penalty in the current matter, you are still required to immediately file all outstanding statements and will be responsible for any late filing fees assessed by your filing officer. (Gov. Code § 91013.)

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us with ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact Teri Rindahl at (916) 327-2018 with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

REDACTED
