Warning Letter Re: FPPC Case No. 130008; Jeffrey Denham

Dear Mr. Denham:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),<sup>1</sup> found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to an audit report referred to us by the Franchise Tax Board. The audit covered the period January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2010. A copy of the audit report is enclosed for your information.

The audit found that the committee did not disclose occupation and/or employer information for some contributors and that it made one contribution that exceeded the contribution limits. Section 84211 of the Act requires that occupation/employer information be reported for any contribution of $100 or more. Section 85301(a) designates the contribution limits for state candidate-controlled committees.

The findings constitute violations of the Act. The dollar amounts involved in the findings, however, are relatively small and we have decided to close this case with a warning letter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable
