Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 13/1074; Anthony G. Jones, Respondent

Dear Mr. Jones:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),<sup>1</sup> found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a sworn complaint filed against you that alleged you failed to report all of your economic interests on your Candidate's Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700) that was filed in connection with the City of San Bernardino City Council election.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you failed to report your investment in Century 21 Showcase and income from Southern California Permanente Medical Group.

The Act requires that candidates for public office must report economic interests from persons located in, or doing business in, their jurisdiction. (Sections 82035; 87201.)

Your actions violated the Act because you failed to initially report the economic interests identified above. However, shortly after you were contacted by the Enforcement, and prior to the runoff election, you amended your candidate's SEI. We are now closing our file on this matter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
