Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 12/109; Linda Parisi, Respondent

Dear Ms. Parisi:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to your self-reported complaint wherein you acknowledged that you inadvertently violated the Act's mass mailing at public expense provision.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found the City of Laguna Beach paid for a letter sent to 346 property owners concerning the release of property liens that contained your title and signature.

The Act prohibits a mailing of 200 or more pieces that features an elected officer affiliated with the agency by name, office, photograph, or other reference, unless a specific exception applies. (Section 89001; Regulation 18901.)

Your actions violated the Act because it was not necessary that your title or signature be contained on the letter to property owners. (Regulation 18901(b)(6).) However, since you self-reported your violation, and since you contacted this agency for assistance on the matter prior to sending out a similar letter to seven other assessment districts, we are closing this matter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

REDACTED
