Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 10/101; Friends of Kevin Carr; Kevin Carr, Jr.
Respondent(s)

Dear Mr. Carr:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a referral from your filing officer that alleged that you have failed to file campaign disclosure statements (Form 460).

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you and your committee have failed to file a semi-annual campaign disclosure statement for the period July 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009 by the February 2, 2010 deadline.

The Act provides that committees shall continue to file campaign disclosure statements until such time as the committee terminates its status by filing a terminating Statement of Organization (Form 410.).

Your actions violated the Act because you have failed to continue to file your semi-annual campaign statements, or alternatively, terminate your committee. However, we are closing this matter without further action because you were not successful in your election and your committee has a minimal amount of funds remaining in its account.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
