Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 10/119, David Rabbitt and Friends of David Rabbitt

Dear Mr. Rabbitt:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a complaint filed against you that alleged your committee, Friends of David Rabbitt, had consistently not filed accurate campaign reports.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you and your committee, Friends of David Rabbitt, did not fully disclose expenditures, including the committee's accrued expenses, on the committee's statement for more than a three year period.

The Act provides that a committee's failing to accurately disclose the required information on its campaign reports is a violation. Specifically, the Act requires candidates and their controlled committees to file periodic reports disclosing contributions received and expenditures made. Section 84211, in pertinent part, requires a campaign statement to contain the total amount of expenditures, including accrued expenses, made during the period of the statement to persons who have received

$100 or more as well as the total amount of expenditures made during the period of the statement to persons who have received less than $100 (Sections 84211 (j) and (k).) Your actions violated the Act because your disclosure of expenditures was consistently inaccurate. Because, however, you did not appear to be avoiding disclosure, the inaccuracies appear to be inadvertent mistakes, and you have since amended the reports to correct the errors, we have decided to close this case.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

If you have questions regarding this matter, please contact Adrienne Korehmaras at (916) 322-8241.

Sincerely,
