Warning Letter Re: FPPC Case No. 11/196, Jeanette Rosen/ Yes on A! 2009

Dear Ms. Rosen:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code Section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a referral submitted by Marin County for your failure to file a semi-annual campaign statement.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you failed to file your semi-annual campaign statement, which was due no later than January 31, 2011, covering the period from the closing date of the last statement through December 31, 2010.

The Act requires that candidates and their committees file campaign statements at periodic intervals until the committee is terminated. Specifically, the Act provides that elected officers, candidates, and committees shall file semi-annual statements. (§84200).

Your actions violated the Act because you failed to file your Semi-Annual Campaign Finance Statements in a timely manner. This letter serves as a warning letter. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

¹ The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code sections 81000 through 91014. All statutory references are to the Government Code, unless otherwise indicated. The regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission are contained in sections 18110 through 18997 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations. All regulatory references are to Title 2, Division 6 of the California Code of Regulations, unless otherwise indicated.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

If you have questions regarding this matter, please contact Adrienne Korchmaros at (916) 322-8241.

Sincerely,

 REDACTED
