Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 11/335; Committee to Elect James Vaughn; James Vaughn, Karen D. Andrews, Respondent(s)

Dear Mr. Vaughn and Ms. Andrews:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),<sup>1</sup> found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a referral from your filing officer that alleged you failed to file semi-annual campaign disclosure statements.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you and your committee failed to file a semi-annual campaign statement for the period October 19, 2008 through December 31, 2008 by the February 2, 2009 deadline and failed to file the semi-annual campaign statement short form (Form 470), each July thereafter.

The Act requires that candidates and their committees file campaign statements at periodic intervals. Specifically, the Act provides that candidates and their committees shall file semi-annual statements on July 31 and January 31 of each year reporting activity for the prior six month period. (Section 84200.) Once elected, you continue to file campaign statements, but if you did not raise or spend $1,000 or more in any calendar year, you could file a campaign statement short form to comply with the Act's filing requirements. (Section 84206.)

Your actions violated the Act because you did not file your semi-annual campaign statement due February 31, 2009 or the campaign statement short form by July 31 every year thereafter until you were contacted by the Commission's Enforcement Division. However, since you have now filed those statements, we are closing our file on this matter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
