RE: Warning Letter
FPPC No. 10/580, Ben Manley, Doug Humphreys

Dear Mr. Manley:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (“Commission”) enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the “Act”) found in Government Code Section 81000, and following. The Commission received a complaint alleging that you failed to properly disclose a source of income on your Statement of Economic Interests (“SEI”) for the 2009 calendar year. The Commission has decided to close this case with this warning letter.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you did not include the city in the address listed for “Manly Trucking Co.” on Schedule A-2 of your SEI.

Under Section 87207, the name and address of the source of income must be disclosed.

Although this filing did not include the complete address of the source of income, we determined that further enforcement action was not warranted since there was little public harm.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC’s website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

REDACTED
