Warning Letter Re: FPPC Case No. 100596; Thomas Wills

Dear Mr. Wills:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to an audit report referred to us by the Franchise Tax Board. The audit covered the period January 1, 2008 through June 30, 2008. A copy of the audit report is enclosed for your information.

The audit found that campaign statements and one late contribution report were not filed with the Secretary of State until after the election.

Section 84215(b) of the Act requires candidates for Superior Court Judge to file their original campaign statements with the Secretary of State; Section 84203 specifies that late contribution reports be filed with that same office. The audit report findings are violations of the Act. The committee did, however, file statements timely with the Monterey County Registrar of Voters. Therefore we have decided to close this case with a warning letter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the FPPC. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact Program Specialist William Marland with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
