Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 13/0498; Todd A. Bloomstine

Dear Mr. Bloomstine:

On July 23, 2013, the Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") sent you a Stipulation, Decision, and Order as part of our streamlined settlement program. We are writing to rescind that Stipulation and provide you with the following, updated information.

The FPPC enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act").¹ This letter is in response to a non-filer referral from the California Secretary of State's Office (SOS) which alleged that you violated the Act's lobbying reporting provisions.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case and found that Bloomstine & Bloomstine failed to properly file a complete Form 625 (as it failed to include your Lobbyist Report) for the following quarter:

– July 1, 2012 through September 30, 2012 (due October 31, 2012)

Section 86114 of the Act provide that lobbyist firms, as defined by Section 82038.5 and Regulation 18238.5, must file periodic reports disclosing their lobbying activity by the times specified in Section 86117 and in the manner required by Sections 86118 and 84605. This requirement is satisfied by submitting a completed Form 625. Pursuant to Section 86114, a completed Form 625 includes a separate Lobbyist Report (Form 615) for each lobbyist whom you employ.

Your actions violated the Act because you failed to properly file the aforementioned report(s) by the specified deadlines. However, since you do not have a history of violating the Act, your lobbying activity for the 2011/2012 legislative session appears to be minimal, we are closing your case with this warning letter. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

The FPPC publishes forms and manuals to facilitate compliance with the provisions of the Act. If you need any of these publications, or guidance regarding your obligations, please call the FPPC's Technical Assistance Division at (866) 275-3772 or visit our website at www.fppc.ca.gov.

If you have further questions regarding this matter, please contact Tracey Frazier at (916) 327-2019.

Sincerely,
