---	--------------------------------------	--	---

- Period Covered: The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- A controlled committee of a candidate may not make an independent expenditure to support or oppose another candidate.
- Local jurisdictions may impose contribution limits and additional filing requirements.
- Primarily Formed Ballot Measure Committees: Prior to the semi-annual period in which the measure(s) supported or opposed is being voted on, committees must file quarterly campaign statements in addition to semi-annual statements. Following the election, quarterly statements may also be required.
- Form 470: Officeholders that do not have a committee or raise/spend $1,000 in 2010 may file Form 470 August 2, 2010 and no further reports are required if no contributions or expenditures are made.
- Officeholders whose salaries are less than $200/month and judges: These officials do not have to file the semi-annual statements if no contributions were received or expenditures made during the period.
- Late Statements: Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, filing deadlines may not be extended. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents. Paper reports may be mailed by first class mail unless otherwise noted.
- For important information, including special reports that may be required of local committees making expenditures in 2010, refer to www.fppc.ca.gov and click on the Candidates and Committees section. Use Campaign Manual 2 and Campaign Manual 3.
