Fair Political Practices Commission

- Period Covered: The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- Paid Spokesperson: A committee that makes an expenditure totaling $5,000 or more to an individual to appear in an advertisement to support or oppose a ballot measure must report the expenditure within 10 days on Form 511.
- Issue Advocacy Report: File this report if a payment or promise of payment of $50,000 or more is made during the 45 days prior to an election for a communication that identifies a state candidate being voted on in the election but does not expressly advocate the election or defeat of the candidate. .
- 90-Day Election Cycle Reports: "Election cycle" is defined as 90 days prior to an election and ending on the date of election.
- Prohibition on Candidate Independent Expenditures: A controlled committee may not make independent expenditures to support or oppose candidates and may not contribute to another committee for the purpose of making independent expenditures to support or oppose other candidates.
- Committees Primarily Formed to Support/Oppose a Candidate: Such committees that make an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more must file a Supplemental Independent Expenditure Report, Form 465, or Form 496. Independent expenditures made prior to the late period are due on the pre-election deadlines. Independent expenditures made during the late period are due within 24 hours on Form 496 and a Form 465 is required after the election.
- Contribution Limits: Contributions to state candidates and to committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Some committees that feature state candidates in advertisements are also subject to contribution limits. See contribution limit chart on FPPC's website.
- Candidates: After an election, reporting requirements will continue until the committee terminates. For termination rules, see Manual 1, Chapter 9.
- Late Statements: Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, filing deadlines may not be extended. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents. Paper reports may be sent by first class mail unless otherwise noted.
