About the Political Reform Act
How to Get Help

The Political Reform Act of 1974
The Political Reform Act (the “Act”) was a voter-approved initiative on the 1974 primary election ballot. One of the major provisions of the Act requires the disclosure of lobbying activity, both financial and the legislative and administrative actions attempted to be influenced by:

- Individual lobbyists;
- Lobbying firms;
- Lobbyist employers;
- Lobbying coalitions; and
- Those who spend $5,000 or more in a calendar quarter attempting to influence legislative or administrative action, but do not hire a lobbyist.

The Fair Political Practices Commission
The Fair Political Practices Commission is the independent, nonpartisan state agency authorized to implement, interpret, and enforce the provisions of the Political Reform Act. The Commission is comprised of a full-time chair appointed by the Governor, and four part-time commissioners, one each appointed by the Controller, the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, and the Governor. Each serves a four-year term and no more than three members may be from the same political party. Commission staff members are divided into four divisions: Administration, Enforcement, Legal, and Technical Assistance.

Governing Statutes
The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code Sections 81000-91014.

Regulations
Regulations interpreting the Political Reform Act are located at California Code of Regulations Title 2, Division 6, beginning at Section 18110.

Opinions and Advice Letters
The Commission periodically issues opinions interpreting provisions of the Political Reform Act. The opinions are adopted at a public meeting, with opportunity for input from interested persons.

In addition, FPPC staff issues written advice letters as to the applicability of the Political Reform Act and regulations to a particular factual situation. Visit the Commission’s website, click onto “Library & Publications,” then click onto “Booklets” to find the FPPC publication, “How Do I Get Advice From the FPPC?”

FPPC staff does not provide advice by e-mail.

Obtaining Information from the FPPC
Write, call, or visit the FPPC to get copies of specific advice letters; they are not currently available on the Commission website.

Local/Judicial/Federal Lobbying Requirements
Lobbying activity conducted at the city, county, judicial, or federal levels are not governed by the Act. To determine what, if any, lobbying disclosure requirements are in effect at the local, judicial, or federal level, contact the specific agency in question.

Other Resources
Secretary of State
The Secretary of State is the filing officer for lobbying disclosure statements, issues electronic filing identification numbers, and publishes a directory that reflects information contained in lobbying registration documents. The directory is divided into four Sections that list lobbyists, lobbying firms, and lobbyist employers alphabetically, and lobbyist employers by category. The current Directory of Lobbyists, Lobbying Firms, and Lobbyist Employers may be purchased from the Secretary of State.
