
For purposes of Government Code Section 84308,

(a) A person “accepts” or “receives” a contribution only if the contribution is for that person's own candidacy or own controlled committee.

(b) A person “makes a contribution” to an officer or candidate only if the contribution is made for that officer's or candidate's own candidacy or controlled committee.

(c) An officer “solicits” a contribution only if the officer knows or has reason to know that the person being solicited for a contribution is a party or agent of a party, or is a participant or agent of a participant and either:

(1) The officer or candidate personally requests a contribution for the officer's or candidate's own campaign or controlled committee, or for any other candidate, public official or committee, either orally or in writing; or

(2) The agent of the officer or candidate with the officer or candidate's knowledge, requests a contribution for the officer or candidate's own campaign or controlled committee.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (c), a solicitation does not include a request made in a mass mailing sent to members of the public, to a public gathering, or published in a newspaper, on radio or TV, or in any other mass media.

A person does not “solicit” solely because the person's name is printed with other names on stationery or a letterhead used to request contributions.

(e) A person “directs” a contribution if the person acts as the agent of another person or of a committee other than the person's own controlled committee in accepting a contribution on behalf of, or transmitting a contribution to, such other person or committee.
