(a) For purposes of Section 85317 and this regulation, “carry over” refers to the movement of campaign funds to the candidate's controlled committee established for a subsequent election to the same elective state office or the same elective city or county office subject to the contribution limit in Section 85301(d), without attribution as required by Section 85306(a).

(b) Campaign funds are available to be “carried over” pursuant to Section 85317 and this regulation only if all of the following apply:

2. The campaign bank account/campaign committee that is holding the funds to be “carried over” was established for an election that has already been held; and

3. The funds to be “carried over” are not considered “surplus campaign funds” as defined in Government Code section 89519.

(c) For the purposes of Section 85317, “subsequent election for the same elective state office” refers to:

1. The election to the next term of office immediately following the election/term of office for which the funds were raised;
(2) The general election, which is subsequent to and for the same term of office as the primary election for which the funds were raised; or

(d) A candidate who establishes a campaign bank account for an election but does not file the necessary documents or otherwise fulfill the requirements of the Election Code to appear on the ballot in that election may not “carry over” campaign funds, but may transfer with attribution pursuant to Government Code section 85306 and consistent with Section 85318.
