

(Regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission, Title 2, Division 6, California Code of Regulations)

§ 18946.5. Exception - Valuation of Gifts: Air Transportation.

Air transportation is valued as follows:

(a) The value of transportation on a “commercial flight,” is the price the carrier charges the public for the same class seat on the flight provided to the official. For purposes of this regulation, “commercial flight,” means a flight where individual seats are sold to the public in the general course of business.

(b) The value of all other air transportation is the value of the normal and usual charter fare or rental charge for a comparable airplane of comparable size, divided by the number of passengers aboard the flight.
