

(Regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission, Title 2, Division 6, California Code of Regulations.)

§ 18950.3. Exception: Payments for Travel in Connection with Campaign Activities.

(a) A payment made to an official, who is a candidate for his or her transportation, lodging, or food in connection with his or her campaign activities is a contribution to the campaign committee of that official.

(b) A payment made to an official by or at the behest of a “committee,” as defined in Section 82013(a) (including a “controlled committee,” or a comparable committee regulated under federal law or the laws of another state) for the official's actual travel expenses (including food and lodging) or for other actual and allowable campaign expenses of the committee is neither income nor a gift to the official so long as the expenditures are reportable by the committee in accordance with the provisions of Sections 84100, et seq. or applicable federal law or the laws of the state in which the committee exists.

(c) Any other payment for travel from a committee to an official not covered by subdivision (a) or (b) above, is income or a gift under the Act.
