§ 18950. Travel Payments.

(a) A payment for travel made pursuant to the provisions of Section 89506(a) is a gift and shall be reported pursuant to the provisions of that section. A payment for travel made pursuant to an exception provided under Regulations 18950.1 through 18950.3 is not a gift or honorarium and is subject to reporting only as specified in those regulations.

(b) For purposes of Section 89506 and Regulations 18950.1 through 18950.3, the following definitions apply:

(1) “Payment for travel” means any payment that provides transportation to an official from one location to another location as well as a payment for lodging and food connected with the travel.

(2) “Speech” means making a speech, participating on a panel, or making a substantive formal presentation at a seminar or similar event.

(c) Exceptions: In addition to the exceptions to the definition of gift set forth in Regulations 18940 through 18946.6, the following gift exceptions apply to travel payments:

(1) A payment for travel that satisfies Regulation 18950.1, 18950.2, or 18950.3 does not provide a personal benefit to the official under Section 82028 and is therefore not a gift under the Act.

(2) Any payment for travel received from a state, local, or federal government agency and related per diem expenses for education, training, or other inter-agency programs or purposes, is not a gift or income to the official who uses the payment.

(3) Transportation provided to an official in a vehicle or aircraft owned by another official or agency when each official is traveling to or from the same location for an event as a representative of their respective offices is not a “payment” as defined in Section 82044.
