

1 Amend 2 Cal. Code Regs., Section 18941 to read:

2 § 18941. Receipt, Promise, Acceptance and Return of Gift.

3 (a) A gift of a rebate or discount is both “received” and “accepted” under Section 89503.5 4 when the official knows that the rebate or discount given to the official is not made in the regular 5 course of business to members of the public without regard to official status. An official who 6 receives a rebate or discount has the burden of showing that the rebate or discount was made in 7 the regular course of business to members of the public without regard to official status.

8 (b) Promise of a Gift. For the purposes of Sections 87100 and 87103(e), a gift is 9 “promised” on the date it is offered to the official provided ~~he or she~~ the official thereafter 10 obtains actual possession of the gift or takes any action exercising direction or control over the 11 gift or, with respect to family members under Regulation 18943, on the date the official becomes 12 aware of a promise of a gift to a family member provided that the family member obtains actual 13 possession of the gift or takes any action exercising direction or control over the gift.

14 (c) General Rule for Return, Donation, or Reimbursement of a Gift. Notwithstanding 15 Section 89503.5, a gift is neither accepted nor received if, within 30 days:

16 (1) The gift is returned to the donor, the donor's agent, or the donor's intermediary from 17 whom the item was received, unused and without receiving anything of value in exchange for the 18 returned payment or;

19 (2) The gift is donated, unused, to a 501(c)(3) charitable organization with which the 20 official, or a member of the official's immediate family, holds no position, or to a state, local, or 21 federal government agency, without being claimed as a deduction for tax purposes or;

22 (3) The official reimburses the donor, donor's agent, or the donor's intermediary from 23 whom the payment was received, in full, or for a portion thereof. If the donor is not reimbursed

1 for the full value of the payment, the value of the gift the official has received is reduced by the 2 amount of the reimbursement.

3 (d) Relief from Disqualification. In order to relieve the official of an otherwise 4 disqualifying financial interest under Section 87100 the return, donation, or reimbursement of the 5 gift pursuant to subdivision (c) above:

6 (1) Must occur within 30 days of receipt and before the date the official makes,
7 participates in making, or uses ~~his or her~~ official position to influence the governmental decision 8 in question; or

9 (2) If the return, donation, or reimbursement has not been made before the decision, and 10 the gift would otherwise cause the official to be disqualified from participating in a governmental 11 decision, the official must publicly disclose the receipt of the gift on the public record, disclose 12 its value, and declare that the return, donation, or reimbursement will occur within two working 13 days following the decision. The subsequent return, donation, or reimbursement of the gift must 14 be made within two working days, and within 30 days after receipt or acceptance, and it must be 15 documented in the public record.
