

1 Adopt 2 Cal. Code Regs., Section 18402.2 to read:

2 § 18402.2 Limited Liability Companies, Responsible Officer.

3 (a) Responsible Officer. A limited liability company that qualifies as a committee under 4 Sections 82013(b) or (c) must identify a responsible officer on each statement and report filed
5 under Chapter 4 or 5 of the Act. The “responsible officer” of the committee is the individual
6 primarily responsible for approving the political activity of the limited liability company
7 including, but not limited to:

8 (1) Authorizing expenditures, including contributions, on behalf of the limited liability
9 company.

10 (2) Developing or approving campaign strategy on behalf of the limited liability
11 company.

12 (b) Primary Responsibility. If more than one individual shares in the primary 13 responsibility for approving the limited liability company’s political activities as set forth in 14 subdivision (a), at least one such individual must be listed as the committee’s responsible officer.

15 (c) Liability. A responsible officer may be held liable for a violation of the Act pursuant 16 to Section 83116.5.

17 (d) Recipient Committee. A limited liability company that receives contributions, as 18 defined in Section 82015 of the Act, totaling two thousand dollars ($2,000) or more in a calendar
19 year, qualifies as a recipient committee as specified in Section 82013 of the Act.

20 (e) Intermediary. A limited liability company that makes a contribution on behalf of 21 another, or while acting as the intermediary or agent of another, as defined in Regulation
22 18432.5, must disclose to the recipient of the contribution both the limited liability company’s 23 name and street address, as well as the full name and street address, occupation, and the name of

1 employer, if any, or principal place of business if self-employed, of the person on behalf of 2 whom the limited liability company made the contribution, as required by Section 84302 of the 3 Act.
