Electronic Filing Specific FAQs

Q – Filers uses an alternative way for signing Form 700 with a secured electronic signature. Will the FPPC accept it?

A – Yes, please forward the Form 700 to Form700@fppc.ca.gov within 5 days of the due date.

Q – Do all my filers use FPPC’s electronic filing system?

A – No. The system will only be used by those filers whose statements are forwarded to FPPC. Statements from all your other filers will be processed at your agency as they have been in previous years.

Q – What happens once my filer’s information has been updated?

A – Once your filer’s information is updated, they will receive an e-mail which provides a login ID and password that they use to file their Form 700. The e-mail also provides access to a video that explains how to file statements online.

If you have added new filers since your first update, or if you have filers who left since then, the system will generate e-mails to those filers notifying them to complete their assuming or leaving office statement.

Q – What about filing expanded statements when a filer holds more than one position?

A – New Regulation 18723.1(a) defines “Expanded Statement of Economic Interests, (ESEI)” “primary position,” and “additional position” for purposes of the regulation. Subdivision (c) would authorize, but not require, an official with multiple positions subject to filing obligations to file an ESEI for each position, rather than a separate and distinct SEI for each position. That provision would also specify processes for filing such a statement: the original ESEI is filed for the official’s primary position and a copy of that ESEI is filed for each additional position, as specified.

General FAQs

Q – Do I need to date stamp the Form 700 once received?

A – Yes, this may cause the filer to receive a fine notification and they will be required to pay the $100 fine.

Q - A Filer receives a letter from the FPPC. Do they need to do anything?

A – Yes, they need to read the letter to see what it is about. If they have any questions, they need to reach out to the signer of the letter.

Q – A board member is already filing a statement for her position as a city council member. Must she file a statement for her position on our multi-county agency?

A – Yes, because the jurisdiction and disclosure requirements for the multi-county position are different, she must either file an expanded statement for both positions or file a separate statement for the multi-county agency. Instructions for completing expanded statements are included in the Form 700. Once a form is filed, the statement cannot be altered, not even by the filer.

Q – I have a filer on military leave. Do I send the Form 700 overseas for the filer to complete?

A – No. Simply note this in your log (or, in the case of an individual whose statement is forwarded to FPPC, notify us) and have the individual file his/her annual statement upon returning.

A – No. Listing the total number of pages included with the Form 700 filing is not required by law; it is included simply as a tool to ensure that all pages are received.

Q – Does a board member who has been reappointed, or an employee who moved from one designated position to another designated position within our agency, have to file a leaving office and an assuming office Form 700?

A – No. As long as there was not a break in service of 30 days or more, the person will continue to file annual statements. However, there may be changes to the filer’s disclosure category.

Q – A newly appointed planning commissioner assumed office on October 15, 2021 and filed an assuming office statement. Must he file an annual statement on April 1, 2022?

A – No, any filer who assumed office between October 1 and December 31, 2021, and filed an assuming office statement does not need to file an annual statement until April 1, 2023. The period covered on the newly appointed planning commissioner’s statement will be October 16, 2021, through December 31, 2022.

Q – The executive director for a multi-county agency is required to file a Form 700. He left office and filed a leaving office statement. An interim executive director has been hired from outside the agency. Are persons serving in interim positions required to file statements?

A – Yes, persons serving in interim positions must file statements in the same manner as if they were holding the positions permanently.

Q – A board member appoints a designee to serve when she cannot attend a meeting. Must the designee file a Form 700?

A – Yes, the designee must file an assuming office statement.

Q – My filers make a lot of mistakes on Parts 1 through 3 of the Cover Page. May I complete that information for them?

A – Yes, so long as you do so prior to having them complete their schedules. Once they have signed the form, you cannot make any changes to their statement. Any amendments must be completed by the filer on the appropriate amendment schedule.

Q – What are my responsibilities for an unsigned statement that must be forwarded to the FPPC?

A – Unless you can quickly obtain the signature before it is date stamped, please forward the unsigned statement to the FPPC for follow up.
