FAIR POLITICAL PRACTICES COMMISSION

Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC)

In 1974, in the wake of the Watergate scandal, California voters passed Proposition 9, known today as the Political Reform Act, which regulates conflicts of interest, campaign finance, and lobbying activity.

The FPPC was created to implement and enforce the Act, and to inform and assist candidates and public officials in complying with these laws.

Who is Your Filing Officer?

- City Clerk
- County Clerk
- Clerk of the Board
- Registrar of Voters
- Employee at State or Local Agency who asked you to complete the Form 700

What Do Filing Officers Do?

Filing officers CAN:

- Supply you with the Form 700
- Notify you of due dates
- Accept and review completed statements
- Notify you of errors and request amendments
- Provide contact information for technical help for e-filing systems

Filing officers CANNOT:

- Provide detailed information on how to complete the form
- Provide answers to gift and travel payment questions

Electronic Filing Systems

- Some agencies have e-filing systems which all filers use.
- Many agencies do NOT have e-filing systems.
 - Most filers at these agencies will complete and submit a hard copy of the statement to the filing officer.
 - Certain filers at these agencies will complete their statements using FPPC's e-filing system (usually 87200 filers and State agency heads).
- Technical problems with e-filing systems should be directed to filing officers.
