Dear Angela McLaughlin:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the “Act”).¹ This letter is in response to the sworn complaint you submitted alleging an unidentified person(s) paid for political mailer or flyer advertisements prior to the November 3, 2020 General Election and failed to include the necessary disclosures. After conducting our investigation and review of the case, we are closing this matter without further action as there is insufficient evidence to support a finding that someone violated the Act.

The Act defines “committee” to include any person or combination of persons who directly or indirectly receives contributions totaling $2,000 or more in a calendar year, or makes independent expenditures totaling $1,000 or more in a calendar year.² Section 84502 of the Act requires committees to include a disclosure on any advertisement paid for by the committee.

The Enforcement Division’s investigation was unable to confirm the identity of the person(s) responsible for the advertisement.

Should you have any questions regarding this letter, please feel free to contact me at 916-327-6358 or arose@fppc.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Alex J Rose

Alex J. Rose,
Commission Counsel
Enforcement Division
