Advisory Letter Re: FPPC No. 2020-00897, In the Matter of City of Concord; Valerie Barone; Yes on Measure V 2020

Dear All:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission (the “Commission”) enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the “Act”).¹ This letter is in response to eight complaints, including one sworn, regarding whether the City of Concord sent prohibited campaign-related mailings at public expense by sending multiple mailers and posting information online regarding Measure V. The Enforcement Division completed its investigation and decided to close its file on this matter without prosecution.

The Act prohibits sending a newsletter or other mass mailing at public expense.² Specifically, mass mailing is prohibited if (1) the item is a tangible item; (2) the item expressly advocates the qualification, passage, or defeat of a clearly identified measure, or unambiguously urges a particular result in an election; (3) public moneys are paid to distribute the item, or to prepare the item, for more than $50, with the intent of sending the item; and (4) more than 200 substantially similar items are sent during the course of an election.³ This prohibition limits the public subsidy of political campaigns, which would grant an unfair advantage to governmental bodies that desire to use public resources in pursuit of favorable election results.

An item unambiguously urges a particular result in an election in one of two ways: (1) when it clearly is campaign material or campaign activity because it is related to an election and it is an item such as bumper stickers, billboards, door-to-door canvassing, posters, advertising “floats,” or mass media advertising;⁴ or (2) when the style, tenor, and timing of the communication can be reasonably characterized as campaign material and not a fair presentation of facts serving only an informational purpose.⁵

A payment of public moneys by a local governmental agency made in connection with a communication, whether it is a mass mailing or not, that expressly advocates passage of a ballot measure, or that taken as a whole and in context, unambiguously urges a particular result in an election is an independent expenditure.⁶ Any person or combination of persons who, in a calendar year, makes independent expenditures totaling $1,000 or more qualifies as an independent expenditure committee.⁷ An independent expenditure committee must file semi-annual campaign statements each year for the period ending June 30 and December 31 if it made independent expenditures during the 6-month period prior to those dates.⁸ Further, an independent expenditure committee must report its late independent expenditures within 24 hours of the time they are made to the appropriate filing officers.⁹

Our review found that the mailers and the website <https://www.cityofconcord.org/892/Measure-V> did not contain express words of advocacy, were generally informational, not argumentative, and mild in tone. However, parts of the mailers and website came close to meeting the standard of unambiguously urging a particular result in an election. For example, in the Community Update Mailer, the City is presenting priorities picked by residents, making the language mild but not argumentative. In addition, the mailers and website suggest a clear preference that Measure V pass and the mailer titled “Concord Measure V Voting Information” included language from Resolution 20-48 tailored to appear persuasive. Additionally, Measure V successfully passed in the November 2020 election. However, the statements in the mailers and on the website are not sufficiently inflammatory or argumentative to conclude that they constituted campaign activity rather than informational material. Thus, the Enforcement Division cannot conclude that the mailings or the website violated the Act’s prohibition against campaign mailers at public expense. Therefore, we are closing this matter with this advisory letter.

Although we are closing our file, please be advised of the provisions in the Act and regulations regarding campaign-related communications.
