Warning Letter re: FPPC No. 2025-00273; University of California, San Francisco; UC Regents

Dear Delia A. Isvoranu:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (“the Act”).¹ As you are aware, the Enforcement Division commenced an investigation regarding your client’s potential violation of the Act’s provisions regarding filing officer duties after receiving a sworn complaint filed against the University of California, San Francisco and Michael Blum (FPPC Case No. 2023-00212, Blum). The Enforcement Division has completed its investigation of this case and has found that your client failed to timely provide requested Statements of Economic Interest (Form 700).

The Act requires that filing officers provide Statements of Economic Interest (Form 700) upon request no later than the second business day following the day of the request.² Your client’s actions violated the Act because Form 700s were requested from your client via email during business hours on April 12, 2022 and were not provided to the requestor until April 15, 2022. However, the public harm was low, the Form 700s were provided only 1 day late, your client may have mistakenly interpreted the request for Form 700s as a request for records pursuant to the California Public Records Act, your client cooperated with the Enforcement Division’s investigation, and your client does not have prior Enforcement history involving the same violation. Based on the foregoing, the Enforcement Division is closing this case with this warning letter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an Enforcement Division case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. The Commission has adopted Regulations 18360.1 and 18360.2 to authorize the Enforcement Division to issue warning letters to conclude cases in specified circumstances. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within 10 days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the Enforcement Division will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the Commission's website 10 days from the date of this letter.
