No Action Closure Letter re FPPC No. 2023-00233; Gregory Gandrud, Jeanne Solnordal

Dear Gregory Gandrud and Jeanne Solnordal:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission (the "Commission") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act").[1] This letter is in response to a sworn complaint alleging that you falsified reporting and concealed the true source of certain contributions made from the Alameda County Republican Party to the California Republican Party for the pre-election reporting period of January 1, 2019 to February 9, 2019. The complaint also argued that the applicable statute of limitations should be tolled given the allegations.

The Enforcement Division completed its review of this matter and has decided to close its file without further action. In particular, there is insufficient evidence to conclude that the respondents failed to disclose the true source of the relevant contributions. Further, there is insufficient evidence that the respondents fraudulently concealed violations, as required to toll the statute of limitations under Section 91000.5, subdivision (b). The Enforcement Division did find that the respondents failed to timely report the relevant contributions. However, the contributions were reported on amendments filed before Enforcement Division contact, and the related violations are now outside the applicable statute of limitations.[2] For these reasons, we are closing this matter without further action.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact Michael Chance Felkins by email at cfelkins@fppc.ca.gov or by phone at (279) 237-3766.

Sincerely,

[1] The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code sections 81000 through 91014, and all statutory references are to this code. The regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission are contained in Sections 18104 through 18998 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations, and all regulatory references are to this source.

[2] Gov. Code Sec. 91000.5
