No Action Closure Letter re FPPC No. 2026-00333; Kasey Reynolds

Dear Mr. Hildreth:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission (“Commission”) enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the “Act”).¹ This letter is in response to a Commission-initiated investigation to determine whether your client, Kasey Reynolds, violated Section 87100 of the Act by impermissibly taking part in a governmental decision that would have a reasonably foreseeable, material financial effect on her economic interest(s).

After conducting our investigation of the case, we found that although your client has an interest in Shubert’s, Inc. (“Shubert’s”), as a business entity and source of income, she does not have an interest in the underlying real property. Under the Act, month-to-month tenancies do not qualify as real property interests for purposes of the Act, and Shubert’s operates on a month-to-month tenancy. With respect to the potential impact of the governmental decisions at issue on Shubert’s as a business entity and source of income, there is insufficient evidence to support a finding that your client violated the Act. Therefore, we are closing this matter without further action.

Should you have any questions regarding this letter, please feel free to contact me at abreron@fppc.ca.gov or (916) 322-5771.

Sincerely,

Angela J. Brereton

Angela J. Brereton
Assistant Chief
Enforcement Division
