Warning Letter re FPPC No. 2026-00868; Sari Domingues

Dear Sari Domingues:

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission ("FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act[1] (the "Act"). This letter is in response to a referral from FPPC's Statement of Economic Interests ("SEI") Unit regarding your failure to timely file a Candidate SEI. The Enforcement Division found that as a result of your position as a Candidate for State Assembly in the June 2, 2026 Primary Election, the Act required you to file a Candidate SEI and you violated the Act by failing to file your Candidate SEI by the March 6, 2026 deadline.

Under the Act, candidates for offices specified in Government Code Section 87200 are required to file a Candidate SEI disclosing their investments, business positions, interests in real property, and income received during the previous 12 months.[2] The SEI must be filed no later than the deadline for the declaration of candidacy.[3]

You violated the Act by failing to timely file your Candidate SEI by March 6, 2026, the final filing date for the declaration of candidacy. However, the Enforcement Division has decided to close your case with this warning letter rather than a fine because you have since filed your Candidate SEI and you have no prior history of violating this section of the Act. Although the Enforcement Division is closing this case without seeking a penalty, you are still required to pay any late filing fees assessed by your filing officer. Please contact your filing officer, FPPC's SEI Unit, at Form700@fppc.ca.gov for further information about your required filings.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

[1] The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code sections 81000 through 91014, and all statutory references are to this code. The regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission are contained in Sections 18104 through 18998 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations, and all regulatory references are to this source.

[2] Section 87201.

[3] Ibid.

A warning letter is an Enforcement Division case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. The Commission has adopted Regulations 18360.1 and 18360.2 to authorize the Enforcement Division to issue warning letters to conclude cases in specified circumstances. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within 10 days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the Enforcement Division will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the Commission's website 10 days from the date of this letter.

If you have questions regarding this letter, please contact Vanessa Greer by email at vgreer@fppc.ca.gov or by phone at 279-237-5965.

Sincerely,

Christopher Burton
