RE: Post-Election Campaign Statements

Gentlemen:

The undersigned judge is in receipt of your notice of July 7, 1978, reminding all candidates for State office, including judges, that their campaign committees are required to file statements. Please be advised that, although I was up for election this year, I was unopposed and therefore my name was not on the primary ballot. It is my understanding that I will be reelected automatically following the November election.

I did not campaign and had no campaign committee. I did not spend any money on the election, nor did I solicit or receive any campaign funds.

If I am required to file a statement to this effect on one of your forms, please furnish me with same.

Very truly yours,

FRANK CLIFF, Judge
