Subject: Procedure for Reviewing Opinions Issued by Agencies Interpreting Their Conflicts of Interest Codes

At its meeting of March 7, 1978; the Fair Political Practices Commission approved the staff's internal procedure for reviewing opinions issued by agencies interpreting their Conflict of Interest Codes. The Commission indicated that it wished to review only those opinions which involved a complex or difficult interpretation of the Code or the Act. The Commission also made it clear that such agency opinions neither confer immunity of the type described in Section 83114(a) nor bind the Commission with respect to future interpretations of the Code or the Act.
