Dear Mr. Norve:

You have requested advice concerning the campaign provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act").^{1/}

Section 83114 and Regulation 18329 state that written advice will be provided to any person who has duties under the Act or to that person's authorized representative. Your questions are general in nature and you have not indicated whether you are seeking advice on your own behalf or as the representative of another person who has duties under the Act. Therefore, we decline to provide written advice to you.

However, enclosed is Regulation 18427, which sets out the duties of treasurers and candidates under the campaign reporting provisions of the Act. Also enclosed is a copy of a previously issued advice letter which may assist you. (Davidson Advice Letter, No. I-90-096.)
