

2026 Statement of Economic Interests (SEI) – Form 700 Filing Officer Informational Fact Sheet Courts

FPPC Contacts

Theresa Poon

Form700@fppc.ca.gov

279-237-5961

We look forward to working with you to make the upcoming filing season great! The 2025/2026 Form 700 and Reference Pamphlet are now available on our website www.fppc.ca.gov

2025 Annual Form 700 Due March 2, 2026

(A late fine may be imposed if the statement is filed past March 2, 2026.)

Must use the FPPC's e-filing system and submit your Form 700 electronically.

- Judges (including pro tem judges who served 30 days or more during 2025) (Four hours or more constitutes one day served.)
- Court Commissioners

Pro Tems: Temporary or part-time court commissioners and pro tem judges must file annual statements if they served 30 days or more during 2025.

Retired Judges: You are not required to notify retired judges of their filing obligations. The FPPC notifies them, and they must file the statements directly with the FPPC e-filing system. Statements filed by retired judges will not be posted on our website.

Please do not forward statements for filers covered under your court's conflict-of-interest code.

Statements that are filed with the FPPC:

- Continue to keep filers' information current in the system. Continue to monitor when assuming and leaving office statements should be filed electronically using the FPPC e-filing system.

Need Assistance?

Please send questions regarding electronic filing or if you need to file or receive a letter to form700@fppc.ca.gov.

Request advice via e-mail 24 hours a day at advice@fppc.ca.gov.

Watch our website for upcoming filing officer seminars and webinars.